Deletion or blocking of data

Your personal data will only be stored for as long as is absolutely necessary to provide the specified services and as required by law. After this period, the user's personal data will be blocked or deleted on a regular basis.

Google Analytics

Our website uses Google Analytics, the web analysis service of Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", small text files that are stored on your computer and store data about the use of our website. The data generated by the cookie about the use of our website is transmitted to a Google Server in the USA and stored. Since IP anonymization is activated on our website, your IP address will be shortened by Google. This applies to member states of the European Economic Area. In rare cases, full IP address may be transferred to a Google server in the USA and only shortened there. Google uses this information to evaluate your use of our website, to compile reports for us of the use of the website and to collect further statistical data. Your IP address will never be merged with other data stored on Google. The use of cookies can be prohibited by a setting in your browser, however, this may affect the functionality of our website. Using a special additional program for your browser (Add On), you can deactivate the collection of data by Google Analytics.

Social Plugins

We may use social plugins from the providers listed below on our website. Plugins are marked with the corresponding logo. The service operator may receive information and personal data from our visitors through such plugins. A2Klick solution installed by us prevents the non-obvious collection and transmission of data to the service provider. Only when you activate a social plugin with a click will the collection of information and its sending to triggered the service provider. Which data such a plugin collects as soon as it is activated and how it is subsequently use is beyond our control. In some cases, direct connections to the services of the respective provider are created and the IP address and specific usage information can be recorded and used. Service providers can also try to save cookies on their computer. You can find out how these cookies work in the data protection information of the respective provider. Facebook can identify you as a visitor if you are currently logged into your Facebook account.

Social media buttons from the following companies are integrated on our website: Facebook, Whatsapp (Facebook Ireland Limited, 4 Grand Canal Square, Dublin 2, Ireland) Facebook, Whatapp (Facebook Ireland Limited, 4 Grand Canal Square, Dublin 2, Ireland)

Cookies

Our website uses "cookies". Cookies are text files that are transferred from the server of a website to your computer. Certain data such as IP address, browser, operating system and Internet connection are transferred. Cookies do not start programs and do not transmit viruses. The information collected by cookies is used to make navigation easier for you and to optimize the display of our websites.

Data that we collect will never be passed on to third parties without your consent or linked to personal data. The use of cookies can be prevented via settings in your browser. In the explanation for your internet browser you will find information on how to change these settings. Certain functions of our website may not function properly if the use of cookies is deactivated.
